Old Business

On Dec.1st the Calif Auto museum had a Tree Trimming Party that started at 1:00 pm, this was where Car Club Members set up their own Christmas trees, but as usual people showed up before that. Since we are Car Club members, we used this as one of our club events.

Jim Nakata and myself arrived at 11:15 am so I could get to the same location inside the museum as last year, which I was lucky to get. We were able to get our tree set up and most of the ornaments on, Chad & Manjeet Murray show up around 12:30 and Manjeet re arranged some of the ornaments which made it look a lot better. This year we also put on our custom ornaments that were made from pictures of our Firebirds and Trans Am on the tree; we also had fake presents under our tree.

The other club members that attended were Mary Wing and Petra Martinez.

Around 3:30 there was a fantastic potluck dinner, the museum supplied the Turkey and Ham and the car club members supplied the side dishes and dessert, our club brought assorted cookies. They numbered every table so our table was number 6 and even with help from one of our members trying to get the announcer to call our table, I am not using her name, but it was fun to watch, we were one of the last table called, there was still a lot of food, in fact I did not even go and get any dessert I was stuffed. There was also a great raffle where club members donated prizes to the museum, I forgot when that started. Both Petra and myself donated prizes under our clubs name. We all bought raffle tickets and three of us won prizes.

One of the members from the Calif Auto Museum told me that we can display 6 of our Trans Ams in the museum in Nov. 2025, how many members are interest in displaying for a month, this will be our Nov. 2025 event.

Our group picture with our Christmas tree behind us.

On Dec. 6th was the Chips for Kids Toy Drive at Cal Expo; myself Jim Nakata and Petra Martinez met at Black Bear Diner on 1830 Arden Way at 4:30 pm and we left about 4:55 pm to drop off toys. This is a event I would like to see our club participate in the coming years.

On Dec. 7th we had our club Holiday Christmas party that started at 6:00 pm which was held in a private room at Brookfield's Restaurant on Madison Ave in Sacramento.

The members that attended were Chad & Manjeet Murray, Don Scalise, Mary Wing, Jim Nakata, Donn & Sylvia Edlund, Paul & Cary Camilleri, Petra Martinez.

This was a very fun social event, and since it is the Holiday's season the club bought all the members dinner including desserts. I know that several members got the Salmon dinner including myself which was great.

As usual we do a gift exchange so when someone brought a gift, they picked a ticket from a bowl with a number on it. So, we start with the lowest number, also we play a game if someone likes a gift the other person got, they can take it, that can only be done twice with one present. From what I saw everyone had a wonderful time.
