Old Business - On Oct. 16th we all met at Bill Conlin Sport Complex in Freeport and drove 160 along the Sacramento River which was a beautiful drive to Rio Vista and had lunch at Foster Bighorn, if you have never been there I highly recommend going there, the food was excellent. I personally had Fish and Chips. We invited the Camaro Generation club to join us and two of their members attended, Jack Meyers and Rick Byrd. A friend of mine that I went to Palo Alto High School with who lives in Rio Vista that I have not seen in 14 years joined us for lunch.
